Throughout his ministry Jesus uses the social occasion of a meal as a graced opportunity to challenge some people with his teaching and comfort others with his healing. Jesus always shares more than food with his table companions; he shares himself. And in sharing himself he is the source of conflict for some and good news for others. The Pharisees are frankly appalled that Jesus openly associates with sinners; they are careful to segregate themselves from sinners lest they become unclean. When it comes to a choice for dinner partners Jesus is highly indiscriminate: he'll eat with anyone! He doesn't demand that people first mend their ways before they eat with him; rather, Jesus uses the meal as a way of coming to fellowship with him. In dining at Simon's house Jesus has confronted his host with the question of how he sees other people. That question is addressed to us also. Do we see other people in such a way that encloses them in their wrongdoing? Or do we see others like Jesus does - in some a way that allows them a future? Forgiveness promotes change in people; it funds them for a new future. Let our sharing around the Lord's table help us to do that.

ENTRANCE

Alleluia, alleluia! God first loved us and sent his Son to take away our sins. Alleluia!

THE SECOND UAC (Pallottine) CONGRESS

364 participants from 7 different countries attended. St Vincent's life & missionary concept was explained. Have we accepted the challenge that St Vincent gave us to renew faith & enkindle charity in the field & formation? To hear delegates from different countries giving testimony to their work in UAC formation was inspiring. We truly walked in St Vincent's footsteps. – Annette Atkinson

BISHOP LES TOMLINSON'S VISIT was a great pastoral occasion. Not only did he meet the children preparing on Thursday for confirmation & the staff & school, but he shared in much of the life of the Parish at lunchtime & dinner sessions. He met residents at Waverley Valley & Wairoonga, and celebrated all Masses on the weekend, including the 2.00pm Confirmation Mass. He was very impressed by all that our parishioners do & commented on the breadth of care & the faith commitment in the doing of it. Thanks to Judy Byrne and Bev Glass who provided meals on Thursday tea and Sunday lunch.

PRAYER FOR POPE BENEDICT XVI

Knights of the Southern Cross invite all Parishioners to join them in a prayer for the Holy Father. Copies of the prayer are available from table in the Narthex.

NB: Knights' Exec & Branch Meetings for July and August are at 2:00pm.
